JURISDICTION OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

Committee on the Judiciary, to which committee shall be referred all proposed legislation, messages, petitions, memorials, and other matters relating to the following subjects:

1. Apportionment of Representatives.
2. Bankruptcy, mutiny, espionage, and counterfeiting.
3. Civil liberties.
4. Constitutional amendments.
5. Federal courts and judges.
6. Governmental information.
7. Holidays and celebrations.
8. Immigration and naturalization.
9. Interstate compacts generally.
10. Judicial proceedings, civil and criminal, generally.
11. Local courts in the territories and possessions.
12. Measures relating to claims against the United States.
13. National penitentiaries.
14. Patent Office.
15. Patents, copyrights, and trademarks.
16. Protection of trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies.
17. Revision and codification of the statutes of the United States.
18. State and territorial boundary lines.

As specified in Rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the United States Senate.

RULES OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY[1]

I. MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE

1. Meetings may be called by the Chairman as he may deem necessary on three days notice or in the alternative with the consent of the Ranking Minority Member or pursuant to the provision of the Standing Rules of the Senate, as amended.

2. Each witness who is to appear before the Committee or any Subcommittee shall file with the Committee, at least 48 hours in advance of the hearing, a written statement of his testimony in as many copies as the Chairman of the Committee or Subcommittee prescribes.

3. On the request of any member, a nomination or bill on the agenda of the Committee will be held over until the next meeting of the Committee or for one week, whichever occurs later.

II. QUORUMS

1. Ten members shall constitute a quorum of the Committee when reporting a bill or nomination; provided that proxies shall not be counted in making a quorum.

2. For the purpose of taking sworn testimony, a quorum of the Committee and each Subcommittee thereof, now or hereafter appointed, shall consist of one Senator.

III. PROXIES

When a record vote is taken in the Committee on any bill, resolution, amendment, or any other question, a quorum being present, a member who is unable to attend the meeting may submit his vote by proxy, in writing or by telephone, or through personal instructions. A proxy must be specific with respect to the matters it addresses.

IV. BRINGING A MATTER TO A VOTE

The Chairman shall entertain a non-debatable motion to bring a matter before the Committee to a vote. If there is objection to bring the matter to a vote without further debate, a rollcall vote of the Committee shall be taken, and debate shall be terminated if the motion to bring the matter to a vote without further debate passes with ten votes in the affirmative, one of which must be cast by the Minority.

V. SUBCOMMITTEES

1. Any member of the Committee may sit with any Subcommittee during its hearings or any other meeting, but shall not have the authority to vote on any matter before the Subcommittee unless he is a member of such Subcommittee.

2. Subcommittees shall be considered de novo whenever there is a change in the Subcommittee chairmanship, and seniority on the particular Subcommittee shall not necessarily apply.

3. Except for matters retained at the full Committee, matters shall be referred to the appropriate Subcommittee or Subcommittees by the Chairman, except as agreed by a majority vote of the Committee or by the agreement of the Chairman and the Ranking Minority Member.

Sept. 18, 1985—Considered by the Senate, taking action on additional amendments proposed as follows: ADOPTED: Stafford-Bentsen amendment No. 633, to provide an alternative way through which companies may obtain pollution liability insurance; Stafford (for Kasten) amendment No. 635 (to amendment No. 633), of a perfecting nature, to clarify that activities of pollution liability risk retention groups are limited to coverage of pollution liability risks; Weicker amendment No. 636, to require a study of and report on the sources and extent of lead poisoning in children from environmental sources; Lautenberg amendment No. 638, to improve community emergency preparedness and response, requiring the publication of a list of extremely hazardous substances, taking into account the toxicity, reactivity, volatility, flammability, and usage of such substances; Baucus amendment No. 639, to assure that no delay occurs in cleaning up sites presently listed on the National Priorities List, that the MITRE model will be revised to accurately reflect comparative risk on a site-specific basis, that in the interim special study waste sites (or abandoned mine drainage areas) could be listed on the NPL if they present a genuine and substantial risk, but certain safeguards would be put in place to assure that proper site-by-site assessment of risk is undertaken before this is done, and that higher priority sites are listed first, and the EPA's emergency authorities under sections 104 and 106(a) of CERCLA would remain available to deal with these sites, when appropriate; Lautenberg (for Mitchell) amendment No. 640, to establish in the Environmental Protection Agency a program of research on hazardous contaminants in the indoor air and exposure to radon gas. WITHDRAWN: Symms amendment No. 637.

Sept. 19, 1985—Considered by the Senate, taking action on additional amendments proposed as follows: ADOPTED: Bradley-Lautenberg amendment No. 647, expressing the sense of the Congress that the President, in selecting response action for facilities included on the National Priorities List published under section 105 of the Act because of the presence of radon, is not required by statute or regulations to use fully demonstrated methods, particularly those involving the offsite transport and disposition of contaminated material, but may use innovative or alternative methods which protect human health and the environment in a more cost-effective manner; Stafford-Bentsen amendment No. 648, providing that not later than July 1, 1986, the President shall publish a list of toxic chemical substances which, on the basis of available information and in the judgment of the President, are manufactured in or imported into the United States in aggregate quantities that exceed 500,000 pounds per year and may cause adverse environmental effects; Stafford-Bentsen amendment No. 649, providing language for dealing with a facility at which equipment for the recovery of processing (including recirculation of condensate) of methane has been installed; Durenberger amendment No. 650, providing that not later than October 9, 1985, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget shall complete his review and make available for publication in the Federal Register all of the proposed recommended maximum contaminant levels for those organic and inorganic chemicals published by the Administrator of EPA in volume 49, Federal Register, page 45502, and submitted by the Administrator to the Director prior to April 30, 1985.

Sept. 20, 1985—Considered by the Senate, taking action on additional amendments proposed as follows: ADOPTED: Stafford-Bentsen amendment No. 651, of a technical and clarifying nature; Lautenberg amendment No. 652, requiring that annual reports be submitted to Congress on the status of cleanup efforts at all identified Federal facilities; Kennedy amendment No. 653, providing $15,000,000 for a comprehensive national program of lead abatement; Kennedy amendment No. 654, to allow and encourage the Environmental Protection Agency to be more flexible in choosing alternative cleanup procedures when additional contamination is discovered at Superfund sites; Kennedy modified amendment No. 655, to increase funding for the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry; Stafford (for Hatch) amendment No. 656, authorizing the awarding of grants, contracts, and cooperative agreements by the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency for health research and training related to hazardous waste cleanup; Stafford-Bentsen amendment No. 657, providing that if the Administrator of EPA, in consultation with the head of the relevant department, agency, or instrumentality, determines that a remedial investigation and feasibility study or remedial action will be done properly at the Federal facility by another potentially responsible party within the deadlines provided, the Administrator may enter into an agreement with such party providing for assumption of the responsibilities set forth; that the head of each department, agency, or instrumentality or his designee may consider, compromise, and settle any claim or demand under the Act arising out of activities of his agency, in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Attorney General, and that the President may exempt any site or facility of any department, agency, or instrumentality in the executive branch from compliance with any such guidelines, rules, regulations or criteria if the President determines it to be in the paramount interest of the United States to do so; Metzenbaum amendment No. 658, providing that grants to communities may be used to obtain technical assistance in interpreting information with regard to the nature of the hazard, remedial investigation and feasibility study, record of decision, remedial design, selection and construction of remedial action, operation and maintenance, or removal action; Packwood-Long amendment No. 659, of a technical and clarifying nature; Heinz amendment No. 660, providing for the development and construction of regional research centers at appropriately qualified universities, research and medical institutions for the study of biological and genetic effects of wastes and materials found in the environment; Byrd amendment No. 661, directing the Administrator of EPA, not later than 30 days after enactment of the Act, to initiate a comprehensive review of emergency systems for monitoring, detecting, and preventing releases of extremely hazardous substances at representative domestic facilities that produce, use, or store extremely hazardous substances; Stafford-Thurmond amendment No. 663, making technical corrections and amending the contribution and review provisions; Stafford (for Specter) amendment No. 664 (to amendment No. 663), of a perfecting nature, providing that, in resolving contribution claims, response costs shall be allocated among liable parties using such equitable factors as the court determines are appropriate; Bentsen-Stafford amendment No. 665, providing that the President shall, in contracting or arranging for response action to be undertaken pursuant to contracts or cooperative agreements funded in accordance with the Act, agree to hold harmless and indemnify a contracting or subcontracting party against claims, including the expenses of litigation or settlement by third persons for death, bodily injury or loss of or damage to property arising out of performance of a cleanup agreement to the extent not covered by available insurance and to the extent that any such damages awarded do not arise out of the negligence, recklessness, or international misconduct of the contracting or subcontracting party; Bentsen amendment No. 666, providing that any litigation relating to permits of the Administrator issued pursuant to the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, the Solid Waste Disposal Act, the Toxic Substances Control Act, and this Act, and for which such permitted facilities would guarantee the availability of treatment, incineration, or disposal capacity of at least 25 percent for Superfund wastes shall be afforded priority consideration over other civil litigation by the respective United States Court of Appeals having jurisdiction over the litigation; McConnell-Ford amendment No. 667, providing that certain expenses of a private foundation in removing hazardous substances shall be treated as qualifying distributions for purposes of section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; Moynihan-Lautenberg amendment No. 669, authorizing and directing the President to carry out a program of research, evaluation, testing development, and demonstration of alternative or innovative treatment technologies that may be utilized in response actions under section 104 or section 106 of the Act to achieve more permanent protection of the public health and welfare and the environment. REJECTED: Symms-Helms amendment No. 637, by 15 yeas to 79 nays. WITHDRAWN: Glenn amendment No. 662.

Sept. 23, 1985—Considered by the Senate, taking action on additional amendments proposed as follows: ADOPTED: Stafford-Bentsen amendment No. 670, of a technical nature; Bentsen amendment No. 671, requiring additional evidence of financial responsibility for incineration vessels in such amounts, and to cover such liabilities recognized by law, as the President deems appropriate, taking into account the potential risks posed by incineration and transport for incineration, and any other factors deemed relevant; Mitchell amendment No. 673, limiting benefits under the Victim Assistance Demonstration Program to persons who have been exposed to a release of the relevant hazardous substance. PENDING: Roth amendment No. 674, to strike the Victim Assistance Demonstration Program from the bill (Section 129).

Sept. 24, 1985—Considered by the Senate, taking action on additional amendments proposed as follows: ADOPTED: By 49 yeas to 45 nays, Roth amendment No. 674, to strike the Victim Assistance Demonstration Program from the bill (Section 129); Metzenbaum amendment No. 677, providing that standards for health and safety protection of employees engaged in hazardous waste operations, including emergency response, shall be promulgated by the Secretary of Labor, under the Occupational Safety and Health Act, not later than one year after enactment of the Superfund Improvement Act of 1985; Stafford (for Heinz) amendment No. 678, to increase the amount which must be accumulated in the Superfund before the taxes are terminated; Stafford (for Heinz) amendment No. 679, to provide for a post-closure liability program study, a report to Congress, suspension of the liability transfer, and a refund of the unobligated balance in the Post-Closure Liability Trust Fund if further congressional action has not been taken within one year; Domenici amendment No. 680, providing that the President shall consider, but may accept or reject, good-faith offers of settlement from any person potentially liable, and in the discretion of the President is authorized to accept such offers if the offer does not constitute a substantial portion of the costs of response, if (1) the amount of the hazardous substances contributed to the release by the party making the offer, and (2) the toxic or other hazardous effects of the substances contributed to the release by the party making the offer are minimal in comparison with contributions to the release by other potentially responsible parties; Stevens amendment No. 681, providing that, with respect to a Federal facility or activity for which such duties or powers are delegated to an officer, employee or representative of the department, agency or instrumentality which owns or operates such facility or conducts such activity, unless the Administrator has entered into a memorandum of understanding with the head of such department, agency or instrumentality, the concurrence of the Administrator (and the responsible State official where a cooperative agreement has been entered into) shall be required for the selection of appropriate remedial action and the administrative order authorities of section 106(a) are hereby delegated to the Administrator; Wilson amendment No. 682, providing that not later than six months after the inclusion of any facility on the National Priorities List (NPL), or within six months of the enactment of the Act, whichever is later, the department, agency, or instrumentality which owns or operates such facility shall enter into an agreement with the Administrator and appropriate State authorities under which such department, agency, or instrumentality will carry out a remedial investigation and feasibility study for such facility, providing for a timetable and deadlines for commencement and expeditious completion of such investigation and study; Wilson amendment No. 684, providing that the Secretary of Defense shall carry out a program of environmental restoration at facilities under the jurisdiction of the Secretary, to be known as the "Defense Environmental Restoration Program"; Specter amendment No. 685, requiring the Administrator of EPA and the Attorney General to submit to Congress annually on the first day of January a report, including the rules, guidelines, criteria and procedures used to determine which potentially responsible parties to include as defendants in a judicial or administrative enforcement action, to develop facts and information regarding potentially responsible parties at priority sites and to provide such information to potentially responsible parties in order to assist the settlement process, and to determine whether, to what extent, and on what basis to use Fund resources for removal or remedial actions in connection with a settlement or voluntary cleanup; Helms amendment No. 686, expressing the sense of the Senate that the committee of conference on the Superfund reauthorization legislation should report legislation containing a reliable financing mechanism for the Superfund program which does not include the value added tax. REJECTED: By 46 yeas to 48 nays, Abdnor amendment No. 683. WITHDRAWN: Symms amendment No. 687. The Committee on Finance was discharged from the further consideration of H.R. 2005 (Social Security Minor and Technical Changes Act of 1985), striking all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the text of S. 51, as amended. By unanimous consent, Senate will vote on final passage of H.R. 2005, as amended, on September 26. S. 51 was INDEFINITELY POSTPONED.

Sept. 26, 1985—Related Measure H.R. 2005, passed by the Senate by 86 yeas to 13 nays.

SUBCOMMITTEE ON ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

STANDARDS TO BE USED IN ADJUDICATING PRIVATE CLAIMS BILLS

The right to petition for redress of grievances is guaranteed by the first amendment to the Constitution. When called upon to decide whether relief should be granted persons seeking redress of grievances, the subcommittee is guided by principles of equity and justice. In connection with its jurisdiction over claims, the subcommittee considers private bills extending relief to individuals who have no other existing remedy. The task of the subcommittee is to determine whether the equities and circumstances of a case create a moral obligation on the part of the Government to extend relief to an individual.

1. The meeting of this subcommittee shall be held upon appropriate notice by the chairman of the subcommittee.

2. No consideration shall be given to any bill until request is made by the author or sponsor, who shall file sufficient evidence in its behalf.

3. No private bill shall be considered if an adequate judicial or administrative remedy exists, or where court proceedings are pending for the purpose of adjusting or changing the status of the beneficiary.

4. No favorable consideration shall be given to any private bill until the proper department or agency has submitted a report. The subcommittee will obtain such report upon request.

5. Upon receipt of reports from the Departments, private bills shall be scheduled for subcommittee consideration in the chronological order of their introduction, except that priority shall be given to bills introduced earliest in any of the previous Congresses.

6. Bills which have been previously tabled shall not be reconsidered unless new evidence is introduced showing a material change of the facts known to the subcommittee. In the event of a request for reconsideration the subcommittee shall, insofar as practicable, dispose of such request at the first meeting of the subcommittee following receipt of such request.

NOTE: The number of bills referred to the subcommittee makes it impossible to continue to review cases which were the subjects of unfavorable consideration at a prior time. A case considered by the subcommittee and rejected at a previous consideration will be viewed in the same light as a case which has been adversely decided by a court.

7. The subcommittee shall not consider any claim filed with the Office of Workmen's Compensation Programs, Department of Labor, considered on its merits and disallowed; or any bill awarding or increasing compensation to an employee or dependents in lieu of that prescribed by Chapter 81—Compensation for Work Injuries, of title 5, U.S. Code or otherwise interfering with the provisions of that chapter, except bills to waive the limitations of time contained in pertinent sections of the Act.

NOTE: Bills to waive statutes of limitation as they apply to this subject area, may be waived upon two-thirds vote of this subcommittee. As a matter of policy, these bills will include, if approved by the subcommittee, a provision precluding the receipt of benefits for any period prior to their date of approval. In addition, such bills will include a limitation requiring presentation of claims within 6 months from the date of approval. The showing required by the subcommittee to warrant favorable consideration of such a bill is at least a prima facie case, coupled with justification for failure to file with the time prescribed by the act. Statute of limitations problems are the only aspects of employee compensation cases that will be entertained by the subcommittee. The subcommittee has concluded that if the relief now extended to regular government employees or persons entitled to benefits is inadequate under the general law, the remedy must come by general law, not by enactment of discriminatory private legislation in selected cases.

8. The subcommittee shall not consider any claim for retirement benefits, compensation, pension, or gratuity by an employee of the Government, or a member of the Armed Forces or the Reserves, or by his dependents, when the retirement benefits, compensation, pension, or gratuity to which such person claims to be entitled is specifically covered by statutes, which apply in a uniform manner to all similarly situated individuals.

NOTE: The subjects of benefits, compensation, retirement, and pension rights of persons who serve or who previously served in the Armed Forces of the United States are fully covered by public law. Private bills providing for the award of such benefits to persons or their dependents contrary to the system of benefits awarded under applicable law to other similarly situated individuals, will not be entertained by the subcommittee.

9. The subcommittee shall not consider any claim for retirement benefits, compensation, pension, or gratuity under the Railroad Retirement Act when such claim has been considered on its merits and disallowed or otherwise conflicts with the provisions and compensation of that act, except bills to waive the limitation of time. This rule may be waived only upon order of two-thirds of the subcommittee present and voting.

10. The subcommittee shall not consider any claims bill for benefits under the Social Security Act as amended, when an application for such benefits has been considered on its merits and disallowed or the provisions of the bill otherwise modify or extend the provision or benefits payable under that Act, but this prohibition shall not apply to bills to waive limitations of time. This rule may be waived only upon order of two-thirds of the subcommittee.

11. In all bills carrying an appropriation, a provision shall be added limiting attorney's fees to not more than 10 percent. This limitation shall not apply to claims based upon findings of the chief commissioner of the Court of Claims, court decisions, or where extraordinary services have been rendered. In such cases the subcommittee will determine the amount of fee to be allowed.
